THE CITY ELECTION.

A Taxpayer Favors the Old Board.

ED. APPEAL:—I would like to inquire why it was there were so many aspirants for the office of City Trustee, as soon as it became known that there were $25,000 to be spent for sewers?

We have had the old Board for some time, and is there any reason why they cannot spend the money as well as new hands at the bellows?

The way the names are piling up on the registry list it looks as if the outsiders were passing word along the line to register and help get a new crowd in.

The old crowd have managed funds of the city well enough, and I can see no reason for a change.

A TAXPAYER.

[Anyone who wishes to publish communications on the city election can do so. The columns of the APPEAL are open to everybody. Ed.]

The "Mangler" Starts up Again.

During the winter that wicked little sheet the Waubuska Mangler has been snowed up in Mason Valley, but yesterday Mr. Lovejoy the publisher was in the city making arrangements to resuscitate the journal. He has added to his stock by purchasing some of the old Dayton Times material and is now negotiating with the APPEAL for the casting of a roller.

As soon as it is finished and reaches Waubuska by slow freight the sheet will resume the libeling of Lovejoy's neighbors and in general blackguarding of the residents of Mason Valley.

As a newspaper the Mangler is a regular Joe Dandy, built somewhat on the lines laid down by the Hammer Index.

The editor has been slinging mud at the APPEAL for some years, but whenever he wants any first-class rollers made, so that his old sheet can be distinguished from a three weeks old piece of fly paper, he runs his face for the material at this office and never pays a bean.

The sheet will be run as a Farmers Alliance organ this summer and in the winter go whatever way the swag seems the easiest to reach.

We welcome it to our exchange list, and have invited the publisher to consider himself at home in our office whenever he is not in the Police Station.

Physicians and Druggists.

In an interview with an eminent Dr. of this city the following rather startling statement was made by the learned M. D. and we submit it to our readers for their judgment as to its truth. He said that if it were possible to do such a thing he would like to have San Francisco's 1200 physicians all locked up in jail for one month, excepting only two homeopathic doctors, whom he remarked could do no harm, and every drug store but one locked for the same period. The result he emphatically avers would be a reduction in about one half of the mortality. In addition he says the physicians of to-day "play ball" with their patients, meaning that they aggravate disease rather than cure it to procure more fees, and finally that in S. F. there are not one hundred drug stores where a prescription can be refilled so that it will be even the color, to say nothing of the efficiency, as the original. The medicos also get a big percentage on all prescriptions.

A Special Edition.

Next week the APPEAL will issue a special edition to circulate principally among the farmers of Nevada. It will be separate and distinct from the daily edition of the APPEAL. It will consist of 3000 copies at the lowest estimate, and if sufficient advertising is secured, 5000 copies will be printed.

It will go to every farmer in the State of Nevada, and also be circulated in Alpine and Lassen counties, California.

Persons desiring to secure the benefits of this advertising should send in their orders at once.

If you want a good fitting shoe go to Oleovich Bros. m24

Shenandoah.

Bronson Howard's intensely interesting comedy drama of the Civil War, "Shenandoah", will visit our city for one night, at the Carson Opera House on Friday April 24.

It will be given with the originals, or home company, scenery and realistic accessories, that made its unsurpassed run in New York so notable. Bronson Howard has received about $70,000 in royalties for "Shenandoah" since its first production in New York, at the Star Theatre, September 8th, last year, and its manager's profits have been nearly $100,000. The Gross earnings of the play in eleven months have been about $255,000. The record is unparalleled in the history of American drama. The play tells a fascinating story of the love of a Northern soldier for a Southern girl, and shows how in sight of battle her sympathies turn from the Southern cause to that of the man she loves. The point of this incident is expressed by a hero in these words: "A woman's heart belong to no country, no flag, but to her husband or her lover", which may be taken as the meaning of the whole play.

Seats now on sale for this, the greatest attraction that has been here in years. Secure your Seats at Hawkin's Cigar store.

Death of Joseph P. Kilday.

Last Thursday Joseph P. Kilday was taken ill with what was at first supposed to be quinsy, but proved to be dyptheria, which caused his death at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Deceased had been in the employ of A. C. Hofer & Bro., for the past nineteen months and was greatly thought of by his employers, and his many friends. He was 14 years, 4 months and 17 days of age. His funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock and was well attended. The floral gifts were costly and numerous.
